May it extend many years over a united people, loyal to her and to their own rights! We generally call the Netherlands Holland. The people in Holland are very much like our American folk, --quite industrious, frank, lovers of liberty, and home-makers. But Queen Wilhelmina must expect some thorns with her many roses. We have not tried it, but we think a king or a queen may often wish he or she were somebody else, and not wearing a crown. Do you suppose she will look at things the way Marcus Aurelius Antoninus did, whose picture we give on page 85? He, too, sat on a throne. He, too, lived in a palace. But he thought it very hard to be happy, and often wanted to exchange places with some humble subject. As emperor, he had power, money,...
