I seem to be able to catch the beginning of it, say three or four notes; the remainder of the phrase I was totally unable to identify even when the greatest effort to do so prevails. In fact I find it necessary to visualize the piano and some one at it in order to get the first part of the phrase in tonal images. Test 2. The high grade 3 here I think is due to the fact that I put the phrase of my invention into the mouth of my mother, who used to sing a great deal and who still sings some. It must be of interest to you to know that when I put...
