In God s unfailing strength, fight, bravely fight! Against tryrannic powers that mar and blight; Against the wrong that turns our day to weeping night. Know thou the art to heal man desolate, On heav n to look for aid, on God to wait; Fear thus should ne er thine onward course impede, For faith in God shall triumph, might to right shall cede. Press onward, then, the dawn will surely break, Rest not nor sheath thy sword till th echoes wake, E en shouts of hosts victorious in the fray, Loud paeans heralding millenial day. O may thy star career in ever-bright ning light O er fields of azure beauty dazzling to the sight, Kept bright to woo the sons of men from endless night; E er kindling in them freedom, truth, and love, Revolving in their train towards Heaven above.
