Smith-Downing draws from her life experiences, research and the Word of God to shed light on and gives thought provoking practical aspects of ministry which the clergy, from the priest, to pastors. to bishops and beyond, should consider as they walk in their Calling. Minister Debra Coulter The Body of Christ Church International College Park, GA Commissioner, Gullah Geechee Cultural Heritage Corridor Dr. Pamela J. Smith-Downing has written a self-examining, clergy prevention guide. Her integrity, and her spirit combined with her heart desire to witness all of us as clergy healthy, whole and balanced makes this guide life changing. Being a clergy herself she writes from the heart of experience, there is no compromise in her convictions, just straight biblical truths. This guide Ministerial Ethics is a must read for both young and old clergy alike. There should be no clergy library without this practical guide! Rev. Rose Wright-Scott, M.
