Women in ministry face needs that are often overlooked by the local church and consequently remain underdeveloped as they seek to lead and guide those in their care. The need to shape emotions to guard and fulfill God's purpose and the need to bond in order to build a community of authentic, lasting friendships are distinctively feminine and foundational to a successful ministry. As the founder of Inspire Women, Anita Carman is uniquely qualified to offer practical, biblical training and resources to support leaders, and those thinking about leading, on the front lines in our churches. Transforming Leaders covers the three primary emotions, loneliness, rejection, and fear; a leader must overcome to maximize her impact while providing a personalized curriculum to knit the hearts of those she serves. Editorial Reviews About the Author At the age of 17, Anita Carman arrived in the free land of America after the tragic suicide of her mother. By God's grace, He carried Anita on an incredible journey from bondage and fear to physical, emotional, and spiritual freedom. Today, Anita is the founder and president of Inspire Women, an organization that inspires women across ethnicities, denominations, and economic levels to connect their lives to God's purpose, and funds biblical resources and scholarships to train women for missions and ministry.
