J87465 2009a OCLC Number: (OCoLC)526540328 Subject: Law enforcement -- Information resources management -- United States. Excerpt: . . . 11 Fusion centers are working. Lets ensure safeguards are in place to protect our civil liberties and that all centers are equipped to combat both crime and terrorism. Done legally and done effectively, these centers have been responsible for the arrests of bank robbers, criminal street gang members, money launderers, and terrorists. The cases were made because multiple jurisdictions quickly linked crimes, patterns, and individuals involved in criminal wrongdoing. The value of fusion centers is the information they put out to all stakeholders. Every local police or sheriffs department has the particular mis-sion of protecting neighborhoods - protecting communities from crime and terrorism. Cops on the street are uniquely positioned to receive and document information from a variety of sources that could assist the Federal Government in maintaining our homeland security. We have systems in place to facilitate the sharing of that infor-mation. Lets make sure all agencies are plugged in. We have sys-tems in place to facilitate the sharing of that information. Lets en-sure effective analytic capability so that we do not go down the wrong road. These systems are in place to facilitate the sharing of that infor-mation. Lets establish safeguards so that information is used ap-propriately and hold people accountable. We have systems in place to facilitate the sharing of that infor-mation. Fund these systems and allow them to mature and im-prove. It will make our neighborhoods safer and our homeland more secure. Thank you. The prepared statement of Chief Manger appears as a submis-sion for the record. ARDIN...
