Excerpt: . . . plants and is another illustration of the gradual dissemination of species with habits which lend themselves readily to distribution through commercial agencies. Flies and other pests. The necessity of controlling these insects has been greatly emphasized by the extensive mobilization of troops, particularly as more than half of the deaths in armies during recent wars have resulted from diseases rather than from wounds. The almost constant demand for information relating to household insects had practically exhausted the edition of State Museum Bulletin 136 dealing with the Control of Flies and Other Household Insects, and with the above facts in mind an extended and almost entirely rewritten edition entitled Household and Camp Insects, was issued as State Museum Bulletin 194 and widely distributed among sanitary officers of the army as well as to those specially interested in work of this kind throughout the country. Insect pest survey and information service. This special war activity was organized last May in cooperation with the New York State Food Supply Commission, the State College of Agriculture, the farm bureaus, the State Experiment Station, and other agencies cooperating with the State Entomologist. An additional stenographer was engaged in this work from May 23d to July 31st. This service, since its organization and up to September 1st, sent out 729 letters, 4763 copies of circulars, 1729 copies of the fifteen weekly digests prepared, 1754 report blanks and 12, 174 pages of circular matter. It has received 606 reports from over...
