The Position of Woman in Primitive Society A Study of the Matriarchy

By C. Gasquoine Hartley

CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback.

Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand.

Paperback. 122 pages. Dimensions: 11.0in. x 8.5in. x 0.3in. The twentieth century is the age of Woman; some day, it may be that it will be looked back upon as the golden age, the dawn, some say, of feminine civilization. We cannot estimate as yet; and no man can tell what forces these new conditions may not release in the soul of woman. The modern change is that the will of woman is asserting itself. Women are looking for a satisfactory life, which is to be determined from within themselves, not from without by others. The result is a discontent that may well prove to be the seed or spring of further changes in a society which has yet to find its normal organisation. Yes, women are finding themselves, and men are discovering what women mean. In the present time we are passing through a difficult period of transition. There are conditions of change that have to be met, the outcome of which it is very difficult to appreciate. A transformation in the thought and conduct of women, for which the term revolution is not too strong,...
